Rerep of SA [redacted] 7/19/65, at
New York and Bureau letter to Chicago 8/20/65.

The Chicago Office from the inception of the Criminal Intelligence Program has been most desirous of ascertaining the identity of LCN members in the Chicago "family", and this office in the past and particularly now, has been very cognizant of any person who might be a member of this organization or any person who we could surmise might be a suspected LCN member. In this area of suspected members, Chicago could only be certain of one person, [redacted] from the Rockford, Illinois, area. He was so listed in the rerep of SA [redacted]. There were many persons who were believed to hold a potential of being groomed for LCN membership or there was a possibility in the making of a person being considered for future initiation into the LCN. These persons were appropriately set forth in rerep under "potential member".

b7C

The Bureau requirements for designating membership in the LCN are very clear and certainly well founded. There are a number of individuals in the Chicago area who are not suspected LCN members but because of their activity, associates and background hold a potential of being groomed at some time or another for inclusion in the membership of this organization. In almost every instance, Chicago is aware of the activities of these persons as potential members through either current or past investigation or through informants who are in a position to know the individuals mentioned.

JOHN VARELLI (92-1358) (P* with current FHA investigation being conducted)

In connection with other individuals listed as potential members, the Chicago Office is in a position to remain abreast of their activities through sources and corollary investigations. In some instances the person is a known cartage or jewel thief who associates principally with persons in the organized criminal element in Chicago. Their background and national origin is such that at some time in the future such a person could be considered for grooming as an LCN member. There are several persons who are active in the "juice" racket or who are regarded only as "collectors", yet their associates are close to organized crime and the person's background and origin such that they could be considered for grooming in the LCN. In some instances the persons mentioned have been known to this office for many years and previous investigations have indicated that although close to LCN members and probably used by them no information is known that he is a member or suspected member, yet, such a persons would hold potential for constant future evaluation. In almost every instance information is forthcoming concerning these persons, consequently no AR investigation is being initiated at this time, UACB.

The Chicago Office attempts to carefully review any and all information obtained from both 92 matters and gambling investigations. Wherever it is determined that the individual is worthy of additional investigation, such inquiries are made or an appropriate 92 case is opened with emphasis on his LCN connections.

Chicago will conscientiously remain alert to their responsibilities in the area of the Criminal Intelligence Program. Every effort is being extended to insure that no person is overlooked who offers any potential as LCN material through his associates or his activities.

On July 21, 1963, [redacted] was observed leaving the 5 O'Clock Club in Calumet City, Illinois, at 11:50 a.m. He drove directly to La Cortes Liquors, East 14th Street, Chicago Heights, Illinois. There he picked up two individuals and the three of them drove to the Vagabond Lounge in the Thomas Hotel. He was then observed talking to [redacted] and RALPH EMERY at the Vagabond Lounge.

Addition spot checks of GUZZINO reflects that he is constructing a building at 159th and Burnham Avenue in Calumet City, Illinois. Chief LINKIEWICZ checked the village records and determined that GUZZINO obtained a building permit for the construction of a drive-in restaurant in the 600 block of Burnham Avenue. b7C [redacted] and other unidentified individuals are often at the site and appear to be interested in its construction. Inquiry at the service station located directly across the street from the construction site indicates that the location is not desirable as a drive-in restaurant and it is assumed from neighbors that GUZZINO is trying to conduct some illegal activity on the premises.
